The guests were met at the door by Mrs. E. M. Ingles, mother of the charming hostess, who escorted them to the receiving line. Mrs. Ingles wore a handsome gown of black crepe de chene. In the receiving line were Miss Mary Elizabeth Ingles, who was gowned in chiffon over white silk, Miss Louise Cray in white silk, Mrs. R. M. Johnson in delicate pink silk and Mrs. W. G. Leer, mother of the groom-elect, in black net over black is with diamonds. After the guests had assembled they were conducted to the dining room where frappe was served. In the dining room the guests were seated, given pencil and paper and requested to write a wish for the bride, were read by Mrs. C. M. Best, after which they were placed in a handsome box which looked and presented to the bride to-be by Miss Ingles in an appropriate toast. In the parlor Miss Cray was seated in a handsomely decorated chair beneath the attractive linen bag which was suspended above her. The strings were pulled by little Misses Carolyn McIntyre and Lona Butler and the bride-elect was showered with beautiful gifts. Refreshments consisting of ices and cakes were served the guests.

Value of Contentment.

A contented mind is the greatest blessing a man can enjoy in this world, and it, in the present life, his happiness arises from conquering his desires, it will arise in the next from the gratification of them.

Kentucky Women Want to Vote.

Representative Harvey Helm, of the Eighth Kentucky district, will introduce at the first opportunity after Congress completes its preliminary work, a petition signed by Mrs. James Bennett, Mrs. Desha Breckinridge and Mrs. John B. Castleman, constituting the Congressional Committee of the Equal Rights Association of Kentucky, which prays that the direct elections amendment to the constitution be so worded that women may vote in the election of United States Senators.

Commission Makes Report.

Miss Fanny Rawson, secretary of the Kentucky Library Commission, has filed with Governor Wilson a report of the work done by the commission during the fourteen months it has been in existence. The Kentucky Library Commission was created by an act of the Legislature of 1910, which went into effect on June 13 of the same year.

During that time ninety-four traveling libraries have been loaned; twenty-eight to schools, including ten which were furnished the State Supervisor of Rural Schools five to charitable institutions; eight to small libraries one to a social settlement and four to young Men's Christian Associations and clubs. There are now traveling libraries in fifty-four counties, and before the first of January the commission will have 100 libraries in circulation.

The commission has been gathering data as to the number of public libraries in the State and twenty-seven have sent in reports. Of this number there are fourteen public libraries with city support located at Covington, Harrodsburg, Henderson, Hickman, Lawrenceburg, Lexington, Louisville, Maysville, Mt. Sterling, Newport, Paducah, Paris and Shelbyville.

Lingering Scent of Scandal.

When a long suppressed scandal breaks into publicity it is found that the odor has not improved in the meantime and it is apt to hang about those who had knowledge of it.

Send Christmas Gifts Early.

The Red Cross Christmas stamps are soon to go on sale in this city and the postoffice authorities here wish to caution the citizens of Paris that any letters or packages received at the office containing a Red Cross stamp on the addressed side will be returned to the sender if the sender is known, and if not known will be sent to the dead letter office. All Red Cross stamps must be placed on the reverse side if the sender expects them to be delivered to the addressee.

The authorities also ask the people to mail their presents early as possible and avoid the rush of Christmas week. If in any case the sender does not wish packages opened before Christmas it has been advised that they may put on the addressed side this notice "To be opened Christmas," and also the name of the sender should be placed in one corner.

Forty-Ninth Anniversary.

Yesterday was the forty-ninth anniversary of the Battle of Hartsville, Tenn., which was participated in by Gen. John H. Morgan and his command. The battle was fought in the early morning of December 7, 1862 and according to the survivors a colder day was never experienced. The entire command of twelve hundred men was compelled to swim the Cumberland river and at daylight attacked the Federals who outnumbered them two to one. The Federals surrendered after a sharp engagement and with their prisoners they again crossed the Cumberland. As they reached the opposite shore, reinforcements from Gallatin, Tenn., where 15,000 Union soldiers were stationed, came up.

A Grim Reminder.

"Doctor," said the desperate heavy-weight, "give me something to make me weigh less." "That sort of thing merely makes you dangerously ill." "I don't care if it does." "Very well. But I can't see why you should go to all that trouble merely to make labor a little lighter for your palbearers."

GOOD LIVER REMEDY FREE

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloated feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.

What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample bottle.

Thousands of people first learned of this remarkable cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles through a free sample. Mrs. Frank Lilly of Plainview, Ill., sent for one and it cured her and she is open in saying that she will never take pills or strong cathartics again, as Syrup Pepsin acts so mildly. Mr. W. L. Bryant, the Postmaster at Sardis, Tenn., says he will never be without it again. No sick person can afford to ignore a remedy so highly endorsed as this. It is good for all the family from infancy to old age, because it is mild, free from griping and yet promptly effective. Furthermore, results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

The Famous Rayo Lamp

The Rayo Lamp is the best and most serviceable lamp you can find for any part of your home.

It is in use in millions of families. Its strong white light has made it famous. And it never flickers.

In the dining-room or the parlor the Rayo gives just the light that is most effective. It is a becoming lamp—in itself and to you. Just the lamp, too, for bedroom or library, where a clear, steady light is needed.

The Rayo is made of solid brass, nickel-plated; also in numerous other styles and finishes. Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick. Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the
